The Conquest of Niffa is of such Importance, that we shall relate the Account given of it in the London Gazette, because it has some Particulars not mention'd in the other Advertisers.

Vienna, August 3, N. S.

YESTERDAY came Advice by an Express, that Field Marshal Count Philippi, with a Detachment of Count Seckendorff's Army, consisting of 6 Regiments of Horse, 500 Hussars, 2000 Grenadiers, and 6 Field-Pieces, being advanced to Niffa, sent a Trumpet to the Bashaw commanding in the Place, to summon him to surrender without Delay. The Bashaw demanded 20 Days for sending to the Grand Vizier and receiving his Orders; Count Philippi returned Answer, that if he did give up the Place in 24 Hours, he must expect Quarter for himself, his Garrison, or the Inhabitants; adding, that the great Army of the Imperator would quickly come before the Place. Field Marshal Count Seckendorff having received Advice from Count Philippi how Things stood, made all the haste he could with his Army, and appeared before the Town, but without his Artillery: But the Bashaw, not staying for his Arrival, had already made Capitulation with Count Philippi on the 25th of July. On the 28th Count Seckendorff took Possession of the Place, in which were found 150 Brass Cannon and Mortars, with great Stores of Ammunition and provisions.

Niffa stands on a River of the same Name, which falls into the Morave, and is 50 Miles S. W. from Viddin, and about 115 S. E. from Belgrade. 'Tis a strong Town, and of great Importance. Prince Lewis of Baden with 15,000 Men defeated 80,000 Turks near this Place in 1689, and soon after took the Town, tho' it was well fortified; but in 1690 the Turks recovered it again, after three Weeks Siege.

There are Letters of the 9th of June, O. S. from Constantinople, by way of Venice, which say, that provisions and Money are very scarce there, and the People very much dishearten'd; not only on Account of the Misfortunes already suffered, but others they foresee; the rather, because they have so little Hopes of Assistance from the Persians, that they apprehend Court of Russia will bring over Thomas Kouli to their Interest: That there has been a Rising at Adrianople, which might have prov'd fatal, if it had not been prevented by imprisoning the principal Authors of it, and then putting them to Death; notwithstanding which there is a Faction still lurking for Opportunities to breed fresh Disturbances, to which they are the rather encourag'd by the Distance of the Troops from that Town. They heard, moreover, at Constantinople, that by reason of the great Plagues committed a Year ago by the Russians in Tartary, 40,000 Families had been obliged to abandon the Country, for Want of Subsistence; and that as many Families of another Hord of Tartars had thrown themselves under the Protection of the Crown of Russia, as well for Want of Sustenance, or Fear of the Cossacks and Calmucks.

Letters from Madrid of the 12th ult. O. S. say, that on the 3d ditto died there the Marchioness of Santa Hermosa, Lady of Honour to the Queen, and Governess of her Household, aged 73. She had been Governess also both to the late King Lewis I. and to Don Carlos, now King of Naples.

And those from Lisbon say, that on the 6th of the last, died at Santarem, in the Nunnery of St. Maria, Maria Anna de Fe, Mother of the Maids, who was no less than 109 Years old, being born in 1628.

Yesterday a Man who called himself William Howard, but whose real Name is Anthony Murphy, came to Col. De Veil's House in Thrift-street, by Soho-Square, desiring that he would sign a Pass, which he brought with him, having Four Justices Hands, as he pretended, to it; viz. Robert Cann, and G. Grichard, Esqs; for Gloucestershire, H. Lloyd, Esq; for Oxfordshire, and Francis Ligo, Esq; for Bucks; but the Col. immediately finding out it was a false and counterfeit Pass, he had him taken into Custody; whereupon he made himself an Evidence against one John Burton, for counterfeiting the Hands of the said Justices, and for filling up the said Pass, purporting that the said Murphy, with three other Persons, had like to have lost their Lives at Sea, by the Ship they belonged to taking Fire, recommending them as great Objects of Charity to well-disposed Christians: The Justice upon this Information made out a Warrant against the said John Burton, who upon being taken has confessed the Fact, and is committed to Bridewell for that Offence.
